NOTA DEL PADRE JONATHAN

Eligiendo vida en lugar de la muerte, bendecir en vez de maldecir no es siempre fácil pero no imposible. Requiere una gran valentía y una gran humildad. También requiere de nosotros una enorme fe. Sin embargo, cuando intentamos ir más allá de nuestras heridas, luchar para estar en más contacto con el Espíritu de Dios dentro de nosotros y actuar basado en la bendita presencia, damos vida, nueva vida, a nosotros mismos ... y no solamente a nosotros sino también a aquellos que nos han ofendido.

Las reacciones impulsivas, apresuradas, descuidadas permiten que el mal nos domine. Las reacciones que están basadas en instintos solamente son algo de lo que siempre nos vamos a arrepentir. Pero una respuesta bien pensada, una respuesta con oración y reflexión, algo incluso del ayuno y sacrificio, algo que se consulta y se habla con amigos de confianza, nos ayudará a "dominar el mal con el bien" (Romanos 12:21). Oremos entonces, que recibamos la gracia de siempre responder en una manera de dar vida. El mal nunca se puede combatir con el mal. Solamente el bien puede ponerle fin.

Dios estaba reconciliando el mundo con Él en Cristo y nos entregaba el mensaje de la reconciliación.
(2 Corintios 5:19)

There will be games for kids, entertainment, basic and some advanced origami, face-painting and a brief program. (Main meal will be provided. You are welcome to bring a salad). Any questions, please call Sylvina. (530) 662-2805 ext 118.

FROM FR. JONATHAN

Choosing life instead of death, blessing instead of curse is not always easy but not impossible. It does require a great deal of courage and a great deal of humility. It also asks of us an enormous leap of faith. However, when we try hard to move beyond our wounded selves, strive to be more in touch with the Spirit of God within us and act out of that blessed presence, we give life, new life, to ourselves... and not just to ourselves but also to the ones who have offended us.

Impulsive, hasty, careless reactions allow evil to master us. Reactions that are based on instincts alone are something we will always regret. But a well thought-through response, a well prayed and reflected response, something even borne out of fasting and sacrifice, something consulted and talked over with trusted friends, will help us to "master evil with good" (Romans 12:21). We pray then, that we may be given the grace to always respond in a life-giving way. Evil can never be stopped by evil. Only good can put an end to it.

God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.
(2 Cor 5:19.)

Fall Festival-Save the Date

The HRS annual Fall Festival is quickly approaching. Please save the date for this fun family affair- October 20th from 4pm to 9pm at the Community Center.

Angel Fund

Last year, HRS under the advisement of its advisory group CSAC, launched the Angel Fund. First, thank you to all those that were able to contribute both financially and with your prayers. It was certainly a successful first year. We were able to assist 24 parish children with the cost of tuition. We hope to continue this amazing feat this year! If you would like to help make Catholic education more accessible to our parish children, contact the school office or Kathy Harryman at khwoodland@aol.com

FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP

Bishop Jaime Soto is encouraging each parish in Yolo County to host a voter registration drive on one Sunday during the month of October, and Fr Jonathan agreed to do the first annual voter registration drive on the weekend of Saturday, September 30th and Sunday, October 1st at Holy Rosary Parish.

A training on how to register people to vote will be provided on Thursday, September 14th at 6:30 PM at the Pastoral Center, 503 California Street. Sylvina Frausto was asked to help coordinate volunteers, so if you would like to help with this effort, you are invited to the training session mentioned above. If you have questions, please call her at (530) 662-2805 ext 118.

GOD'S WATCHERS

In the ancient world watchmen were extremely important people. They kept communities safe, and were there to alert them to any impending danger or attack. Before locks, alarms, and security systems, watchmen were the protectors, the safety measure. So when the Lord charges Ezekiel as a watchman today, it is a weighty charge. So weighty, we learn, that if Ezekiel fails to sound the alarm for those around him and they perish in a state of wickedness, Ezekiel will be held responsible! This profound connection between God's will on earth and in heaven is repeated in today's Gospel, where Jesus instructs us that we are to be the security force, the watchers placed on alert that nowhere in the Body of Christ, the church, will there be any two members of the one Body who are not reconciled. Scripture tells us that Jesus reconciled all things in heaven and on earth through the blood of his cross. But we are given the mission to continue that reconciliation on earth as in heaven through our ceaseless efforts to be, as Paul would write, ambassadors of reconciliation. Let us not get too comfortable thinking that we are responsible only for keeping our own lives from the path of wickedness and disagreement. We are also held accountable for the lives of the members of Christ's body around us.
