TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The mystery of the Ascension has to do with holding in tension a sense of God's nearness, along with the burden caused by apparent signs of absence. The risen Jesus says to Mary Magdalene, "Do not cling to me," perhaps pointing out to her that his physical presence to the disciples was time bound and temporary. It was a gift for their transformation, and after forty days, he vanished from their sight and hearing, though never out of their consciousness.

They do not mourn at his going this time: there is no trace of the disciples who hid in fear at his crucifixion, no sense of the women who wept softly as they carried ointments to the tomb through the dewy morning light. Instead, the scriptural accounts show them full of joy, comforted by his promise to be with them forever, and open to the Spirit's power. They are joyful, energized, aware, and united with one another in love. They seem to grasp an awareness that if the mission to the whole world was a serious one, then the presence of the Risen Christ could not be pinned down to any one place or time, but had to be always and everywhere completely available. All peoples, all times, all cultures were opened to receive him in this moment of the Ascension. The energy of this feast is drawn not from absence, but renewed and deeper presence.

CARING FOR THE ELDERLY

Citizens Who Care for the Elderly, a non-profit agency that serves the frail elderly and their family caregivers, is currently in need of both male and female volunteers in the Woodland area for their In-home program. Volunteers for this program provide a break to caregivers and/or a friendly visit to an isolated older adult. We ask our volunteers to commit to two hours a week of volunteer service. Volunteers should be over 18 years of age, outgoing, open-minded, and caring. Citizens Who Care staff work very hard to assign volunteers to clients who have similar interests and backgrounds to assure a pleasurable experience for both the client and the volunteer. If you think that this program is the one for you, please contact Ellie Slaven, Director of Volunteers, at (530) 668-8780 or you can email her at cwcvc@dcn.org.
