Nota del Padre Jonathan

El cielo es lo que Dios desea para cada uno de nosotros. El infierno nunca es la opción de Dios para nosotros. El infierno es el fruto amargo de decir NO a la oferta del amor de Dios. Dios siempre nos busca pero si continuamos diciendo NO, si nos mantenemos diciendo, "No te necesito, No te quiero, mantente fuera de mi vida" no hay manera de que Él se acerque a nosotros. El infierno, como pueden ver, es nuestra opción. El cielo, por el otro lado, es el dulce fruto de nuestro SI a Dios, nuestro SI al amor que nos ofrece Dios.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Year B of the Lectionary has the Letter to the Ephesians today. Ephesus, today in Turkey, was in the first century a great Greek city, the center for the worship of Diana, the goddess of the hunt. It was a vast city even by modern standards, having nearly half a million people in the time of Paul. Yet that was a time of economic recession and moral decay. No wonder Saint Paul stayed here the longest. It gave him an enormous and religiously curious audience. His preaching stirred up the artisans who depended on the pilgrims who came to honor (and buy mementos of) seventeen gods and goddesses enshrined in the city's temples. You can still see the open-air theater where Paul's homily triggered a riot. Paul did have success here, and many conversions among Jews and Gentiles. They seem to have struggled with hope, perhaps because of their suffering from economic woes and isolation.

Some old traditions say that the Apostle John lived out his days here, and that the Blessed Mother was cared for by him. There's no biblical basis for this, but it is certain that a small house just outside the city has been treasured by Christians and Muslims for centuries as the last dwelling of Mary. Long ago, the harbor silted up and the city was nearly abandoned, becoming a small village. As is so often the case, that accident of history preserved the ancient city, so that archeologists have been very successful in revealing ancient Christian sites. One such site is the Church of Mary, probably the first church to be dedicated to the Blessed Virgin, and the site of the Council of Ephesus in 431. Today, a visit to Ephesus is one of the most rewarding journeys for any pilgrim.

From Fr. Jonathan

Heaven is what God desires for each one of us. Hell is never God's choice for us. Hell is the bitter fruit of saying NO to God's offer of love. God always reaches out to us but if we keep saying NO, if we keep saying, "I don't need you, I don't want you, stay out of my life" there is no way He could reach out us. Hell, as you can see, is our choice. Heaven, on the other hand, is the sweet fruit of our YES to God, our YES to God's offer of love.

Responsabilidad Comunal

El pueblo de Dios olvidó la alianza y se burló de las leyes de Dios. No escucharon a los profetas que había entre ellos, los cuales les advertían en nombre de Dios. Los profetas son enviados por Dios para recordarnos por qué estamos aquí, pero muchas veces, incluso en nuestra época, nos burlamos de ellos, los despreciamos y los maltratamos, en vez de escucharlos y agradecerles.

El libro de las Crónicas nos cuenta los resultados de estos pecados: la destrucción del Templo y de toda Jerusalén, asesinatos, caos y por último el exilio a una tierra desconocida. ¿Por qué hallamos estos relatos en la Biblia? ¿Están ahí sólo para informarnos lo que les sucedió a nuestros antepasados? ¿Qué bien nos puede traer eso a menos que también haya un mensaje y una advertencia para nosotros? ¿Somos personas que respetan las enseñanzas de Dios, que obedecen las palabras de Cristo en la segunda alianza en su sangre? ¿O continuamos sembrando obras de maldad y violencia? Estas lecturas nos recuerdan que seremos juzgados como pueblo, no sólo como individuos.
